Letter of Recommendation

October 1, 2024

To Whom It May Concern:

I have worked with Denis Benyaminov on several critical projects for MGTrading LLC.

Denis' technical skills and leadership abilities are outstanding. Denis managed complex technical tasks with ease and delivered innovative solutions that significantly contributed to the success of our projects.

His expertise in project management, system architecture, and team leadership was evident throughout our collaboration. Denis demonstrated a deep understanding of our business needs and ensured that the solutions he implemented aligned perfectly with our goals. His problem-solving skills and ability to work under pressure were crucial to meeting tight deadlines.

I highly recommend Denis for any role that requires strong technical leadership and strategic thinking. Denis is a true professional and would be a great asset to any team.

Please feel free to reach out to me for further details.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
